Innovations in the practice of midwifery education

RCM Education Conference, 10 March,
The Studio, 67 Hope Street, Glasgow, G2 6AE

09.15 Registration and refreshments
09.45 Welcome & introduction Chair: Dr Suzanne Tyler
09.50 The Scotland and England Maternity Reviews – what does this mean for midwifery education - Dr Mary Ross-Davies
10.20 Workshop - The future graduate midwife - Professor Mary Renfrew
11.30 Coffee: Exhibition/Posters/Networking
11.30 NMC review of education: standards for pre-registration midwifery education; standards for AEIs - Anne Trotter
12.00 Innovations in Midwifery Education (20 mins each):
  ▪ Multiple Mini Interviews ; Teaching the Teacher; Leadership in the pre-reg curriculum
  ▪ Multi-professional education and training; Education & practice in remote and rural areas; Transforming the workforce - MUNET
13.00 Lunch: Exhibition/Posters/Networking
13.45 Building midwifery education capacity for the 21st Century and beyond - a pragmatic approach - Dr Christine Furber & Dr Jayne Marshall
14.45 Pecha Kucha – 2 students each country – 5 mins each
15.30 Mind the Gap: Exploring the education and development needs of the future midwifery workforce - Dr Kerry Jones
16.20 Summary of day – Dr Suzanne Tyler
16.30 Conference close

Book your place now by going to the RCM website
https://www.rcm.org.uk/get-involved/events